Section VI. Terms of Reference

1. Please see attached copy of the Invoice for the use of AWS services incurred for the BNRS Next Gen. The amount indicated may be considered as the average cost and that the cost increase as the data and the backup increase. Also, see details of the billing for the technical specifications of the deployed AWS services.
2. The Service Provider will not support the maintenance of local hardware that are located in DTI ROs, POs and Negosyo Centers, and support the maintenance of local hardware for DTI Head Offices - BNRD, FS and COA. However, the technical service provider must provide a disaster recovery site as part of the systems risk management strategy. The provider can select either a cloud based or on-premise strategy as options for the systems' DR implementation.

For the guidance and information of all concerned.
